© All inventories and reports are subject to copyright and may not be altered, copied or scanned by any person without prior written consent from TW Inventories. Inventories are not to be used for check in or checkout purposes by any other person other than TW Inventories unless the inventory has been paid in full and use of copyright permitted.

Check in reports, check out reports, inventory makes, all supporting documentation, images and digital photographs will remain the property of TW Inventories until paid for in full.

TW Inventories shall be entitled to invoice the person or persons or company who has given the instruction. If the instructions to prepare the Inventory are given by a letting Agent this contract is deemed to be made between TW Inventories and the letting agent as principal and the invoice rendered to and payable by the letting agent unless agreed in writing with TW Inventories. If the invoice has not been paid in full within 28 days of receipt then without prejudice to any other right or remedy of TW Inventories shall be entitled to charge interest on the amount unpaid at the rate of 1% above the base rate as set by Natwest Bank on the date of the invoice, compounded weekly from the date of the invoice until payment is made in full.

All bookings are subject to our current Terms & Conditions of Business and Scale of Fees
